Nippon India Small Cap Fund - Direct Growth	Equity - Small Cap	26.25%	Rs 90,000	Rs 112,300	24.78%	4.78%	Very High

Portfolio Metrics

Metric	Value
Total invested	Rs 330,000
Total market value	Rs 427,800
Absolute gain	Rs 97,800 (29.64%)
Portfolio XIRR	6.01%
Concentration (HHI)	0.4166 (high)
Largest single holding	Quant Small Cap Fund - Direct Growth - 56.33%

Key Insights

- 1. Concentration - Portfolio concentration is high
Quant Small Cap Fund - Direct Growth alone makes up 56.33% of the portfolio (HHI 0.4166, high concentration). A large move in this single fund will move the whole portfolio more than a diversified holding pattern would.
- 2. Overlap - Multiple funds in the same category
The portfolio holds more than one scheme in Equity - Small Cap. These funds likely have overlapping underlying holdings, so the effective diversification benefit is smaller than the fund count suggests.
- 3. Performance - Overall portfolio performance
Total invested amount of 330000.0 has grown to a market value of 427800.0, a gain of 29.64%. Portfolio XIRR is approximately 6.01%.
- 4. Allocation - Equity exposure relative to horizon
100.0% of the portfolio is in equity against a 20-year horizon for 'wealth creation'.

System Warnings

■ No OPENAI_API_KEY configured in this environment - used the deterministic template fallback instead of the LLM drafting layer.

Portfolio XIRR	9.97%
Concentration (HHI)	0.4058 (high)
Largest single holding	Mirae Asset Large Cap Fund - Direct Growth - 54.84%

Key Insights

1. Concentration - Portfolio concentration is high

Mirae Asset Large Cap Fund - Direct Growth alone makes up 54.84% of the portfolio (HHI 0.4058, high concentration). A large move in this single fund will move the whole portfolio more than a diversified holding pattern would.

2. Data Quality - Return rate can't be calculated for one or more funds

No investment date was available for Axis Midcap Fund - Direct Growth, so an XIRR (annualized return) could not be computed for this fund. Allocation and concentration figures still include them, only the return-rate view is affected.

3. Performance - Overall portfolio performance

Total invested amount of 400000.0 has grown to a market value of 488700.0, a gain of 22.18%. Portfolio XIRR is approximately 9.97%.

4. Allocation - Equity exposure relative to horizon

81.34% of the portfolio is in equity against a 12-year horizon for 'child's education'.
